NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

References

- a) All referees should be professional rather than personal ones. The Academy may contact other previous employers for a reference with your consent.
- b) Your most recent employer should be given as a referee.
- c) If you have not previously held a teaching post, the name and address of the principal of your institution should be given as the first referee. Heads of department and other persons may be given as a second referee.
- d) If you do not wish confidential references to be sought, it is essential that you state this and the reasons why, when returning this form.

General

- a) The canvassing of any governor or member of the Academy, directly or indirectly, for any post in the Academy's service will disqualify the applicant from the appointment.
- b) Please return this form to the address and person specified in the vacancy advertisement.
- c) In the interest of the economy, it is not the Academy's policy to notify candidates who have been unsuccessful. Nevertheless, the Academy is appreciative of your interest in this appointment.

Disability

Before ticking the appropriate box below, please read the definition of disability.

The definition of disability, as outlined in the Equality Act 2010 is as follows: “a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on a person’s ability to carry out normal day to day activities”.

To be protected under the Act

- An individual must have an impairment which can be physical or mental
- It has to be substantial, that is something more than minor or trivial.
- It needs to be long term i.e. the impairment has lasted or is likely to last in total for at least twelve months or more, or is likely to last for the rest of the life of the person affected (long term includes conditions which fluctuate or may recur such as cancer, HIV/AIDS and multiple sclerosis) and
- It must affect their day to day activities on a regular basis (day to day activities includes things such as reading, lifting and carrying objects, personal care, shopping, meeting and communicating with people. The effect of your impairment on everyday activities is considered as it would be without medication or aids. The only exception is eyesight which should be judged when an individual is wearing their usual lenses or spectacles.

- I do consider myself to have a disability as defined by the Equality Act 2010 (as detailed above)
- I do not consider myself to have a disability as defined by the Equality Act 2010 (as detailed above)
- I prefer not to say
